

AGENCIES PROVIDING HUD-CERTIFIED HOMEBUYER EDUCATION

homeport

Homeport offers eight hours of HUD-Certified homebuyer education to prepare potential buyers for the entire homebuying process and homeownership. Topics covered include budgeting and credit, loan products, home inspections, and the closing process.

Classes are held over two consecutive Saturdays from 9 AM–1:30 PM or four consecutive Thursdays from 6:30 PM–8:30 PM.

Register here

For more information, call 614.221.8889 or e-mail housingadvisory@homeportohio.org.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

OSU Extension, Franklin County's Home Buyer Education Workshop includes eight hours of instruction (two four-hour sessions) and a one-on-one budget and credit counseling session. Topics include steps in home buying process; understanding credit scores; home buying budgeting; closing process; and how to select a lender, realtor, home inspector, and insurance agent.

Register here

For more information, call Stacie Burbage at 614.292.6279 or burbage.1@osu.edu.

Homes on the Hill's eight-hour homebuyer education workshop and training is completed in one Saturday session from 9 AM–5 PM. Topics include mortgage loan application, budgeting and credit, realtor role, homeowners insurance, hiring a home inspector, down payment assistance, credit score requirements, and interest rates.

Homebuying and homeownership education programs are offered in both English and Spanish. Attendance at the education sessions is free.

To register, contact Krisann at 614-275-4663 ext. 109 or email at info@hoth-cdc.org.

? QUESTIONS? Call 614-724-5263 or email info@coclt.org

THE CENTRAL OHIO COMMUNITY LAND TRUST (COCLT) IS A SUBSIDIARY OF
THE CENTRAL OHIO COMMUNITY IMPROVEMENT CORPORATION (COCIC)-THE FRANKLIN COUNTY LAND BANK

